Privacy Notice

The Department of Justice and Attorney-General (DJAG) is collecting your personal information under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000. Where relevant, DJAG will disclose personal information to organisations you work for or provide services to about whether you have a current application for, or hold a current blue/exemption card; the outcome of this application which may include its withdrawal or negative notice, or if your blue/exemption card is subsequently suspended or cancelled. DJAG publishes confirmation about whether your blue card is valid. DJAG will use and disclose your personal information to assess your application for a blue/exemption card and will disclose your personal information to courts, law enforcement agencies, disciplinary or supervisory bodies or anyone you have agreed for DJAG to discuss your application with. It may also be used to contact you with more information about your application and the Blue Card process. DJAG may use electronic communication for matters of information provision and collection of data for research purposes. DJAG manages your personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2009.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

#Disqualified person

It is an offence for a disqualified person to sign a blue card application form.

A disqualified person is someone who:

- has been convicted^ of a disqualifying offence, which includes having sex with a child (irrespective of the type of relationship e.g. teenage boyfriend/girlfriend, unlawful carnal knowledge) or other child-related sex or pornography offences or the murder of a child (irrespective of the penalty and regardless of when and where it occurred); or
- is the subject of:
  - reporting obligations or an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004; or
  - a disqualification order issued by a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card; or
  - a sexual offender order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003.

*Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

^Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

A disqualified person can apply to be declared eligible to apply for a blue card in certain limited circumstances.
